

Wildlife and nature gardening: a European perspective

Wed 23rd November 2016

Flett Lecture Theatre

Natural History Museum, London

"What European wildlife and nature gardeners can learn from each other"

Programme

- 10.00 Registration and tea/coffee
- 10.30 Welcome and Context by Steve Head (Morning Session Chair: Marc Carlton)
Introduction and background; The Forum and the Wildlife gardening movement in England and Wales – Dr Steve Head (WLGf)
- 10.50 Nature gardening in Germany: an historical view from the start to today. How useful is the concept of native plants for wildlife? - Dr Reinhard Witt (President of Naturgarten e.V. [Nature Gardeners' Association], Germany)
- 11.25 Naturgarten e.V.: nature-oriented design in gardens, educational institutions and public space in an era of climate change - Ulrike Aufderheide (Naturgarten e.V. [Nature Gardeners' Association], Germany)
- 12.00 Lunch and networking (optional guided tour of the Wildlife Garden)
- 1.30 Biodiversity path in a heritage park: a case study involving decision makers and citizens - Jérôme Constant and Carole Paleco (Royal Belgian Institute of Natural Sciences) (Afternoon Session Chair: Andrew Salisbury)
- 2.05 Looking for oases - Marianne van Lier and Willy Leufgen (Stichting Oase [Oasis Foundation], Netherlands)
- 2.40 Tea/coffee
- 3.00 Looking after our roots and the brown Stuff - Sarah Rubalcava (Ireland)
- 3.35 19 years of Garden for Life: working together to promote wildlife gardening in Scotland – Dr Deborah Long and Juliette Camburn (Garden for Life Forum, Scotland)
- 4.10 Panel session with speakers (led by Adrian Thomas)
- 4.30 Summing up and Close

(Please note; this programme may be subject to late changes)